Holy Cross Family Ministries President leads Rosary in Scranton for Sainthood Cause of Father Patrick Peyton

Using a rosary that Father Patrick Peyton once used decades ago, Father Fred Jenga, C.S.C., President, Holy Cross Family Ministries, led the faithful of Scranton in a special recitation of the rosary on Thursday, Nov. 3, 2022 at the Cathedral of Saint Peter.
Father Peyton, a candidate for Sainthood, is most known for his famous message, “The family that prays together stays together.” He traveled the world conducting hundreds of rosary rallies with more than 28 million people in attendance.

Pope Francis has declared him Venerable and a possible medical miracle is under review by the Congregation for the Causes of Saints in Rome.

Reciting the rosary in Scranton is significant because Father Peyton has a special connection to the Electric City and the very Cathedral where Thursday’s rosary took place. Before being ordained to the priesthood, Father Peyton served as a sacristan at the Cathedral of Saint Peter.

Read the Full Story from The Catholic Light

National Vocation Awareness Week highlights diversity and unity of Vocations in the Church
The Catholic Church in the United States will celebrate National Vocation Awareness Week, November 6-12, 2022.

Across the United States, dioceses, parishes, and Catholic organizations will host events to promote vocations to the ordained ministry and consecrated life. The faithful are encouraged during this week to renew their prayerful support for those currently discerning a vocation to the priesthood, diaconate, or consecrated life.

In his Message for the World Day of Prayer for Vocations, Pope Francis, reiterating his call for the Church to become increasingly synodal, compared the diversity of vocations in the Church to that of a beautiful mosaic. “As Christians, we do not only receive a vocation individually; we are also called together. We are like the tiles of a mosaic. Each is lovely by itself, but only when they are put together do they form a picture. Each of us shines like a star in the heart of God and in the firmament of the universe. At the same time, though, we are called to form constellations that can guide and light up the path of humanity, beginning with the places in which we live. This is the mystery of the Church: a celebration of differences, a sign, and instrument of all that humanity is called to be.”

Jubilee Mass for Women & Men Religious to be held Sunday, Nov. 6

Sunday, Nov. 6
12:15 p.m.
Cathedral of Saint Peter, Scranton

Everyone is invited to attend a Jubilee Mass for Women and Men Religious who are celebrating milestone ordination anniversaries in 2022 on Sunday, Nov. 6, 2022, at the Cathedral of Saint Peter in Scranton.

The Mass will be celebrated at 12:15 p.m.
The Most Rev. Joseph C. Bambera, Bishop of Scranton, will serve as principal celebrant and homilist for the Jubilee Mass.

For those unable to attend in person, CTV: Catholic Television of the Diocese of Scranton will provide a live broadcast of the Jubilee Mass.

For a List of the 2022 Women and Men Religious Jubilarians

Are you ready to #Leave a Mark?
Young people needed for Mass on Nov. 6
Leave a Mark 2022

A gathering of young adults (18-40) with Bishop Bambera

11/6/22

5:00PM Mass
Cathedral of Saint Peter, Scranton

Social to follow: Diocesan Pastoral Center
330 Wyoming Ave. Scranton, Pa. 18503

Food trucks, music, corn hole, and more!

For more information, visit dioceseofscranton.org or call 570-207-1452.
Young people from around the Diocese of Scranton will come together on Sunday, Nov. 6 for the annual #Leave a Mark Mass, which will celebrate its seventh anniversary in 2022.

The Mass will be held at 5:00 p.m. at the Cathedral of Saint Peter in Scranton and there will be a reception featuring live music and a food truck immediately afterward.

The idea for the #Leave a Mark Mass came after Pope Francis spoke to pilgrims at World Youth Day 2016 in Poland.

The Pope said, “Dear young people, we didn’t come into this world to ‘vegetate,’ to take it easy, to make our lives a comfortable sofa to fall asleep on. No, we came for another reason: to leave a mark. It is very sad to pass through life without leaving a mark.”

The Most Reverend Joseph C. Bambera, Bishop of Scranton, will serve as principal celebrant of the Mass. Father Jeff Tudgay, Pastor, Cathedral of Saint Peter, will serve as homilist.

For More Information About #Leave a Mark 2022

Catholic Social Services begins registration for annual "Gifts for Kids" program in Lackawanna County
Showing love, mercy are key to entering heaven, pope says on All Souls' Day
As Christians await their death and the final judgment of God, the Gospel tells them what they must do to be welcomed into heaven: love others because God is love, Pope Francis said.

In life “we are in the waiting room of the world,” hoping to hear Jesus say, “Come, you who are blessed by my Father,” the pope said during a Mass in St. Peter’s Basilica Nov. 2, the feast of All Souls.

Pope Francis celebrated the Mass with special prayers for the nine cardinals and 148 archbishops and bishops from around the world who died between Oct. 30, 2021, and Oct. 17 this year, including 14 bishops from the United States and four from Canada.

Pope's November prayer intention: 'For children who suffer'
During the month of November, Pope Francis is asking people to pray for children who are suffering because of poverty, war and exploitation.

“Let us pray for children who are suffering, especially for those who are homeless, orphans and victims of war. May they be guaranteed access to education, and may they have the opportunity to experience family affection,” the pope said in a video released Oct. 31.

In the video message released by the Pope’s Worldwide Prayer Network, the pope explained his November prayer intention: “For children who suffer.”

“An abandoned child is our fault,” the pope said in the message.

Commission starts planning global report on child protection efforts
With a renewed membership, the Pontifical Commission for the Protection of Minors met at the Vatican in late October and laid the groundwork for devising an annual report on child protection efforts by the Catholic Church globally.

Oblate Father Andrew Small, commission secretary, told reporters Oct. 28 that members also looked at the commission’s new relationship to the disciplinary section of the Dicastery for the Doctrine of the Faith and continued their efforts to promote greater transparency and fuller reporting to victims about the outcome of their cases.

Support the 2022 Diocesan Annual Appeal!
National Vocations Awareness Week is Nov. 6-12

“I experienced such peace of God saying to me, ‘This is the way I want you to go.’”

- Deacon Michael J. Boris
Ordained Transitional Deacon May 28, 2022

Gifts to the Diocesan Annual Appeal support Diocesan Seminarians during their journey to the priesthood. Their discernment and educational process ensures they are well-formed and that they become holy men with a love for Jesus Christ and His Church.

Click Here to Make a Safe & Secure Online Donation to the 2022 Diocesan Annual Appeal

Follow Us