Antiphon 1: In holy splendor the Lord will send forth * your mighty scepter from Zion.

Psalm 110: 1-5, 7

The Messiah, king and priest

Christ's reign will last until all his enemies are made subject to him (1 Corinthians 15:25)

The Lord's revelation to my Master: "Sit on my right: * your foes I will put beneath your feet." The Lord will wield from Zion † your scepter of power: * rule in the midst of all your foes. A prince from the day of your birth on the holy mountains; * from the womb before the dawn I begot you. The Lord has sworn an oath he will not change. † "You are a priest for ever, * a priest like Melchizedek of old." The Master standing at your right hand * will shatter kings in the day of his great wrath. He shall drink from the stream by the wayside * and therefore he shall lift up his head. Glory to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, * and will be for ever. Amen.

Antiphon 2: We worship the one true God * who made heaven and earth.

Psalm 115

Praise of the true God

You have renounced idol worship to serve the living and true God (1 Thessalonians 1:9)

Not to us, Lord, not to us, * but to your name give the glory for the sake of your love and your truth, * lest the heathen say: "Where is their God?" But our God is in the heavens; * he does whatever he wills. Their idols are silver and gold, * the work of human hands. They have mouths but they cannot speak; * they have eyes but they cannot see; they have ears but they cannot hear; * they have nostrils but they cannot smell. With their hands they cannot feel; * with their feet they cannot walk. No sound comes from their throats. † Their makers will come to be like them * and so will all who trust in them. Sons of Israel, trust in the Lord; * he is their help and their shield. Sons of Aaron, trust in the Lord; * he is their help and their shield. You who fear him, trust in the Lord, * he is their help and their shield. He remembers us, and he will bless us; † he will bless the sons of Israel. * He will bless the sons of Aaron. The Lord will bless those who fear him, * the little no less than the great: to you may the Lord grant increase, * to you and all your children. May you be blessed by the Lord, * the maker of heaven and earth. The heavens belong to the Lord * but the earth he has given to men. The dead shall not praise the Lord, * nor those who go down into the silence. But we who live bless the Lord * now and for ever. Amen. Glory to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, * and will be for ever. Amen.

Antiphon 3: God did not spare his own Son * but gave him up for us all.

Canticle

The willing acceptance of his passion by Christ, the servant of God

Christ suffered for you, † and left you an example * to have you follow in his footsteps. He did no wrong; * no deceit was found in his mouth. When he was insulted * he returned no insult. When he was made to suffer, * he did not counter with threats. Instead he delivered himself up * to the One who judges justly. In his own body * he brought our sins to the cross, so that all of us, dead to sin, * could live in accord with God's will. By his wounds * you were healed. Glory to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, * and will be for ever. Amen.

Antiphon 3: God did not spare his own Son * but gave him up for us all.

Responsory

Listen to us, O Lord, and have mercy, * for we have sinned against you. Listen to us, O Lord, and have mercy, * for we have sinned against you. Christ Jesus, hear our humble petitions, for we have sinned against you. Glory to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit. Listen to us, O Lord, and have mercy, * for we have sinned against you.

Antiphon: Tell no one about the vision you have seen * until the Son of Man has risen from the dead.

Magnificat

My soul † proclaims the greatness of the Lord, * my spirit rejoices in God my savior for he has looked with favor * on his lowly servant. From this day all generations * will call me blessed: the Almighty has done great things for me, * and holy is his Name. He has mercy on those who fear him * in every generation. He has shown the strength of his arm, * he has scattered the proud in their conceit. He has cast down the mighty from their thrones, * and has lifted up the lowly. He has filled the hungry with good things, * and the rich he has sent away empty. He has come to the help of his servant Israel * for he has remembered his promise of mercy, the promise he made to our fathers, * to Abraham and his children for ever. Glory to the Father, and to the Son, * and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, * and will be for ever. Amen.

Intercessions

Let us give thanks continually to Christ, our teacher and our head, who came to serve and to do good to all. In humility and confidence let us ask him:

Come, Lord, to visit your family.

Lord, be present to the bishops and priests of your Church, who share your role as head and shepherd, may they lead your people to the Father under your guidance.

Come, Lord, to visit your family.

May your angel be with all who travel, to keep them safe in soul and body

Come, Lord, to visit your family.

Teach us to serve the needs of others, and to be like you, who came to serve, not to be served.

Come, Lord, to visit your family.

Grant that in the human family, brother may always help brother, so that, with your assistance, it may be a city compact and strong.

Come, Lord, to visit your family.

Have mercy on all the dead, bring them to the vision of your glory.

Come, Lord, to visit your family.
